
WFP Office of Evaluation

November 2017
Features of the 2016 Synthesis
Relevance & Appropriateness

Overall appropriate, at design and over time
Effectiveness
Mixed but improved

Output
Broadly effective

Outcome
Improving availability of data but quality and reliability concerns persist
Efficiency

Mixed – at times limited by conditionality of contributions
Overall Assessment – Year 4 Synthesis

Gender
Mixed but improved at design/analysis

Protection
Targets mostly met

Accountability to Affected Populations
Half of the evaluations recorded targets met
Enabling Environment

Mixed - transition planning
Conclusions

Broker of hunger solutions

Engagement in upstream policy space

Partner of choice

Evidence supplier
Lessons

1. Brokering strategic hunger solutions
2. Adopting a system’s view
3.Preparing for transition
4. Increasing use of data for optimized performance management
5. Moving towards gender transformation
6. Advocating for more enabling financial support