WFP Ethiopia
EMERGENCY RESPONSE
September 2017

Ethiopia Situation Overview

- Over 10 million people require emergency food assistance
- 5.6 million people in January
- 7.8 million people in April
- 8.5 million people in August

3.6 million children and pregnant and nursing mothers require supplementary feeding in Ethiopia

96,500 Drought and conflict IDP’s

847,000 Registered refugees

Relief Assistance
Providing immediate relief assistance through unconditional in-kind and cash transfers to the most vulnerable people in the Somali Region.

Nutrition Interventions
Providing life-saving curative and preventive nutrition services to children under the age of 5 and pregnant and nursing women in areas with high malnutrition rates (TSFP and BSFP).

Assistance to Refugees
Providing food, nutrition and livelihoods support to camp-based refugees in Ethiopia.

Emergency Relief (60%)
5.5 million people assisted by WFP

Nutrition (29%)
1.6 million people

Refugees (11%)
0.6 million people

*In the Somali Region only

Six-month funding shortfall (Sept 2017–Feb 2018)
37%

WFP requires US$130 million to continue operations until February 2018

Refugees
31%
Shortfall: US$26 million
Requirements: US$85.4 million

Emergency Relief
47%
Shortfall: US$100 million
Requirements: US$213 million

Nutrition
7%
Shortfall: US$4 million
Requirements: US$52.1 million

In 2017, WFP has dispatched 260,280 mt of food and nutrition commodities for the emergency response across Ethiopia.

190,355 mt brought in through four ports

293,753 mt storage capacity in country

Produced Safety Net Programme (PSNP), Targeted Supplementary Programme (TSFP), Blanket Supplementary Feeding Programme (BSFP), Pregnant and Nursing Women (PNW)
WFP has provided assistance to refugees in Ethiopia for over 40 years.

- 314,300 refugees from South Sudan
- 183,800 refugees from Somalia
- 58,400 refugees from Eretria
- 50,300 refugees from Sudan
- 4,000 refugees from Kenya

WFP is currently assisting over 600,000 refugees of the 847,000 refugees and asylum seekers registered in Ethiopia.

60% of the region’s population is food insecure

WFP is scaling up operations to assist 3.3 million people in the Somali Region from August 2017

People assisted by WFP in the Somali Region through Relief and PSNP in 2017 (in millions)

- 0.1 million people
- 0.2 million people
- 0.3 million people
- 0.4 million people
- 0.5 million people
- 0.6 million people

WFP is scaling up operations to assist 3.3 million people in the Somali Region from August 2017. This means that each family only receives enough nutritious food to make up about 70 percent of their required daily kilo-caloric intake.