

World Food
Programme

SAVING
LIVES
CHANGING
LIVES

The meals that make a difference

In emergencies, school feeding is an essential safeguard, contributing to a sense of normalcy and educational continuation for children, especially girls.

Providing nutritious meals at school enables children to stay in school and learn, allowing them to more fully achieve their potential and countries to develop their human capital.

Giving children a chance for a brighter future.

 Join us @WorldFoodProgramme  Follow us @WFP

