Cash Transfers

Needs-based approach
There are 821 million people who are hungry in the world. Cash can be an effective path to ending hunger as it empowers vulnerable people to meet their essential needs in local markets according to their priorities.

WFP CASH IN NUMBERS

- 1.1 Million people
  - 52% Women
  - 48% Men
  - 2.1 Bn

- 4,343 Commercial partners
  - 2018

- 64 Countries
  - 2019

- 10 Countries
  - 2009

Technology
The right technology and relationship with partners can help us to better know and serve people’s needs.

Through different types of transfers:
- Digital
- Currency

US$ 10 M
- 2000

38% of total WFP assistance
- 2019

61% Vouchers

59% Cash

61% Vouchers

39% Cash

Strengthening country systems
Cash assistance can be channeled through existing social protection and other national systems, helping to strengthen them.

*Includes: 30% value vouchers and 11% commodity vouchers