Triguna Makanan
Three Functions of Food

Energy
To provide energy to fuel our activities such as working, thinking and performing other physical activities.

Growth
To repair and build our bodies’ tissues, necessary for the formation of bones, teeth, muscles, skin and blood.

Regulation
To regulate various activities of our bodies to function well, including fighting viruses and infections.