

WFP Tanzania

2022 Annual Country Reports

HALF A MILLION PEOPLE WERE ASSISTED BY WFP IN TANZANIA IN 2022

2022 ANNUAL COUNTRY REPORT (January - June)
2022 ANNUAL COUNTRY REPORT (July - December)

203,330
REFUGEES SUPPORTED

WFP provided food assistance to 203,330 refugees (51% women and girls).

USD 3 MILLION
TRANSFERRED TO
256,000 PEOPLE

WFP distributed USD 3 million in cash-based transfers to over 256,000 vulnerable Tanzanians in urban areas.

USD 2.7 MILLION
IN AGRICULTURAL LOANS

WFP supported smallholder farmers and farmers' groups to access USD 2.7 million in agricultural loans.

79,500
SMALLHOLDER FARMERS SUPPORTED

WFP supported 79,500 farmers (50% women) to improve access to quality inputs, predictable markets, and affordable finance.

69,000
CHILDREN RECEIVED NUTRITION ASSISTANCE

WFP provided supplementary food to 69,000 children aged 6-59 months to prevent malnutrition and address micronutrient deficiencies.

160,000 MT OF
FOOD TRANSPORTED BY WFP

WFP transported 160,000 mt of food using rail, lake, and roads for operations in Tanzania and neighbouring countries

DUCK PROJECT: PROMISES LONG-TERM FINANCIAL SECURITY

"I made a decision to invest in a long-term solution with the funds I received from WFP through the Tanzania Social Action Fund. I purchased ducks and I have high hopes that this duck project will increase our income and ultimately improve our living conditions."

Anna Ulaya, one of 256,000 who benefited from WFP cash transfers in urban areas.