Operational Updates

- WFP provided in-kind food rations to vulnerable Libyans reaching 16,710 people through general food assistance (GFA). However, school meals were temporarily suspended in April in observance of Ramadan and resumed in May.
- WFP faced challenges with food-restricted prepaid card CBTs in April due to delays in reconciliation and financial service provider’s technical issues. However, the redemption process was resumed in May for April’s caseload.
- In April, WFP received a temporary supply of 40 mt of mineral/vitamin-fortified date bars from Italy, specifically designated for the School Feeding Programme to support the nutritional needs of students, for distribution starting May.
- On 03 April, WFP participated in the data analysis and assessment working group meeting at the IOM office in Tripoli. As a member of the working group, WFP shared the Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) data extracted from its active beneficiary caseload that will be used for the upcoming IOM IDP profiling exercise.
- On 06 April, WFP presented the Alkufra Sustainable Agriculture project, implemented under its livelihood activities, to other UN agencies and INGOs during the Area Coordination Group meeting in the East of Libya. The presentation focused on highlighting the project’s outputs and benefits, such as WFP’s handover of additional 10 solar-powered water pumps to Alkufra and Rubiana municipalities, its conflict sensitivity approach, and the reduction of CO2 emissions.
- In response to the Sudan crisis that broke out on 15 April 2023, WFP worked with IOM and UNHCR to prepare a Concept Note of Operations. On 25 April, WFP activated the Libya country-level task force for coordinated communication and action to prepare for humanitarian requirements for anticipated arrivals from Sudan. As at end of April no unusual movements into Libya were reported by the IOM Data Tracking Monitor.
- On 25 April, WFP, together with the Embassy of Japan in Libya and Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) Tunisia, co-facilitated a debriefing session for the

Operational Context

Libya is gradually transitioning from emergency humanitarian response towards the promotion of peace and long-term recovery and strengthening of national programmes and food systems, while maintaining a humanitarian response capacity for when needed. As part of WFP Libya’s country strategic plan (CSP 2023 - 2025), effective from March 2023, WFP continues to invest in improving the implementation of its general food assistance, livelihood, strengthening of capacities and school feeding activities, enhancing targeting, needs assessments, and robust delivery systems.

This CSP aims to ensure that activities reach the most vulnerable, while setting the stage for a future reduction in direct assistance, emphasizing building resilience among individuals and institutions and contributing to sustainable and equitable national systems. This approach aims to set the stage for transitioning beneficiaries from direct assistance to resilience building among individuals and institutions and supporting the progressive building of sustainable food systems. The CSP aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Cooperation Framework for 2023-2025 and aims to contribute to the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals 2, 4, 5 and 17 through four country strategic plan outcomes.

Population: 6.9 million Libyans & 0.7 million migrants/persons of concern (estimated).

2021 Human Development Index: 104 out of 191

- On 17 April, Maysaa Al Ghribawy, WFP Libya Country Director, and the United States Institute of Peace \(USIP\) Libya Country Manager, Mehdi Bchir, signed an extension of the strategic partnership agreement between WFP Libya and USIP until 31 December 2025.

Common Services

- WFP's Common Feedback Mechanism recorded 4,941 cases, primarily related to protection services including addressing home eviction due to inability of meeting rental payments and expense cuts done to cover medications. Women accounted for approximately 29 percent of the callers. Majority of the calls received were from the West of Libya, which is where the majority of non-Libyan vulnerable communities reside.
- WFP worked with the UN Information Communication Technology working group to establish reliable and secure networks for humanitarian responses in Libya. In April, WFP programmed a total of 47 VHF radios for sister UN agencies, namely IOM, UNDP and OCHA. Additionally, WFP's Technology Division (TEC) unit is also actively monitoring the progress of fiber optics installation civil work with the UN Benghazi Hub internet service provider to ensure more reliable and stable Internet connectivity for all UN staff based in Benghazi.
