

9 DEC 2025

09:00	The UN in a new world: how impact evaluations can influence effective action
10:00	The added value of using rigorous evidence in an uncertain funding landscape
11:00	COFFEE BREAK
11:30	Partnering for impactful evidence
12:30	LUNCH
13:30	Locally-produced school meals, what it means for employment and agricultural markets	Fostering safe return and peaceful reintegration of displaced populations
15:00	COFFEE BREAK
15:30	Partnering with Governments for impact: Madagascar and Lebanon
16:30	Humanitarian futures: Evidence for decision-making	Not only now : The consistent need for cost-effectiveness analysis

10 DEC 2025

09:00	Women's empowerment: Insights, innovations and challenges
10:30	COFFEE BREAK
11:00	Layering, sequencing and collaborating to build resilience
12:30	LUNCH
13:30	Using impact evaluation evidence: Spotlight on Jordan
14:00	Future tense: how will impact evaluations use AI, machine learning and innovations in data?	Investing in child outcomes: What works for keeping children resilient, healthy, protected and learning?
15:30	COFFEE BREAK
16:00	The case for funding rigorous evidence	School meals: Fuelling learning, nutrition and child wellbeing

11 DEC 2025

09:00	IMPACT: All along the project cycle
10:00	COFFEE BREAK
10:30	Leveraging locally-led impact evaluations: partnering for results
12:00	LUNCH
13:00	Optimizing Climate and Anticipatory Action programmes to shield communities from shocks
14:30	COFFEE BREAK
15:00	A Conversation with Prof. Abhijit Banerjee
16:00	Assessment, Collaboration, Transformation: looking ahead 	