Regional Bureau for West Africa – An overview
June 2020
Planting the seeds of opportunity in crisis
Food insecurity was worsening before COVID-19. It has been further exacerbated by COVID-19.
Central African Republic – armed groups and mineral resources
CAR ranks 117th of 117 qualifying countries in the Global Hunger Index 2019, the only country with an “extremely alarming” score.

Central African Republic (CAR) GHI score 53.6 (≥50.0 extremely alarming)

Source: Global Hunger Index 2019
Disclaimer: The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on these maps do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations.
Deteriorating security in the Lake Chad Basin

Ngala, northeast Nigeria, January 2020

Monguno, northeast Nigeria, June 2020
Conflict and violence overlay with food insecurity
New food insecurity hotspots emerging in urban centres
Countries with planned or active social protection measures in response to Covid-19 in West Africa

Building on the opportunities of the crisis
Thank you!

Disclaimer: The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on these maps do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by the United Nations
A growing number of children under-5 at risk of malnutrition